Getting a Temporary Restraining Order:

A temporary restraining order can be obtained at the Legal Aid Foundation of Long Beach free of charge to eligible clients - first-come first-served.

Monday-Friday, 12:30-3:30pm.

Long Beach Courthouse, Room 102, 415 W. Ocean Blvd, Long Beach, CA 90802.

Also, when called to the scene, the police can issue an emergency restraining order that is good for 3 days.

A Restraining Order Can:

- 1) Order the attacker to stop physically or verbally abusing you or any other family member.
- 2) Order the attacker to move out of the house.
- 3) Order the attacker to stay away from your home, school, work, and your children's school.
- 4) Give you custody of the children and order safe visitation with the children.
- 5) Order the attacker to neither harm nor molest the children.
- 6) Order the attacker to pay child support.
- 7) Order the attacker to pay bills.
- 8) Order the attacker to seek counseling.
